Quartz Mountain Nature Park
Main Park Trail System

New Horizon Trail
1/2 mile long, (travel time 1 hour one way or 2 hours round trip). Moderate to difficult challenge level. This trail starts near the Park Office and climbs the main face of Quartz Mountain. The view is worth the climb.

Wichita Interpretive Trail
1/4 mile long (travel time 30 minutes one way or 45 minutes round trip). Easy to moderate challenge level. This trail connects the Park Office and Live Oak Campgrounds. Trailhead signs have brochures that provide information on common plants and animals that might be found on the trail.

Bicycle & Pedestrian Walkway
1 1/4 mile long (travel time 40 minutes one way or 1 1/2 hours round trip). This paved walkway starts near the paddle boats, crosses the river on its own bridge and continues alongside the golf course. The trail meanders through a wildflower meadow and mesquite grove before dead-ending near the main park entrance. You may share the path with rollerbladers and skateboarders.

Baldy Point Hiking Trails
Several trails of varying length from 800 feet to over 3700 feet surround the Baldy Point area. They vary in difficulty from Easy (•) to Moderate (+) to Strenuous (++) Trails are open during daylight hours. Mountain bikes, fires, hunting and firearms are strictly prohibited.

Baldy Point Climbing Area
From the Park Office, take the park road west to the "Y" and continue to the right. Go through the hills and curves until taking a sharp 90° right hand turn. Proceed 1.3 miles to paved road on the right. Proceed 1 mile to unpaved road on right. Parking is 0.7 miles on the gravel road. Remember that all climbing is at your own risk. Plenty of water and the proper climbing equipment is required. Rattlesnakes may be present and might be seen sunning in the open on cool days. Granite attracts lightning. Immediately descend with prudent and safe speed in the event of an approaching storm.

Quartz Mountain Arts & Conference Center Trail System
